There When We Need You Most Thank You

Dear Gary,

As Ireland finds itself in the midst of an unprecedented public health emergency, the spread of COVID-19 throughout the country has affected every aspect of how we work and live our lives. Dublin Simon Community is no different, and we are mobilising every resource we have to ensure that the health and wellbeing of our clients and residents across our services is not compromised in the coming weeks and months.

Thank you so much to you and everyone at The Organic Institute for your generous donation of mixed organic vegetables. This will help keep our vital services running throughout this Covid-19 crisis, which our resident Kevin has so poignantly described in his poem on the back of this letter.

Because of you, people like Ken can continue to be warm, safe and supported at a time when staying indoors has never been more important.

Because of you, our brave frontline staff & nursing teams can continue to do everything in their power to protect people like Ken from Covid-19.

Because of you, the most vulnerable and isolated members of our community will not feel they have to face this crisis alone.

We don't know how long this pandemic will last or what life will be like when it ends, but we do know that if everyone shows the kindness, support and community spirit you have shown today, we can hope for a brighter tomorrow.

On behalf of our clients, residents, volunteers and all our frontline staff, thank you for being there for us when we need you most.

My warmest wishes to you and your family, keep well and keep safe,

Many Thanks Gary for helping us through these very challenging times
